When selecting an advertisement, it's important to consider the type of message you want to convey.

- A classic advertisement typically includes essential information about the business.
- Alternatively, ads can serve as greetings or convey well wishes, such as 'Wishing you a happy...' tailored to the Jewish community to commemorate holidays in the respective month.
- Larger ads offer space for additional features like QR codes.

If you have any questions or would like some ideas about the types of ads others have taken out in the past, please do not hesitate to reach out.
